

Krzysztof Grzesik FRICS REV

Chris Grzesik is Vice-Chairman of TEGoVA (since May 2011) representing the Polish Federation of Valuers' Associations (PFVA).

Chris is a UK born Polish speaking chartered surveyor, Polish qualified valuer and a Recognised European Valuer with over 30 years experience as a property consultant in the UK and mainland Europe. In the UK he first worked for 12 years as a valuation surveyor at the UK Government's Valuation Office and then as a partner of Kinney & Green, chartered surveyors in the City of London.

In 1991 he set up the real estate services arm of Price Waterhouse in Poland and was also involved in agency and property consultancy work in the Czech Republic, Hungary and Russia. In 1997 he joined Healey & Baker as a partner, responsible for investment agency and in 2000 he became managing partner of King Sturge Poland. In 2004, Christopher set up Polish Properties Sp. z o.o.

Christopher is the immediate past Chairman RICS Europe and former chairman of the RICS Continental Europe Standards Board.

He is the International Representative of the Polish Federation of Valuers' Associations (PFVA) and elected Member of the Board (since 2008) and a recently appointed Vice-Chairman of the Board of The European Group of Valuers' Associations (TEGoVA).

Christopher sits on the Polish Valuation Standards Commission and is a co-author of the "Professional Standards for Polish Valuers" published by PFVA.